

Affiliate Disclosure

Last updated: June 18, 2025

Welcome to IslamicScienceHub.in, a platform committed to promoting research-based insights into the harmony between science and Islamic teachings. In the spirit of full transparency and trust, this affiliate disclosure is provided to inform you about the way our website may earn through certain links and recommendations.

Why This Affiliate Disclosure Matters

We operate under a clear transparency policy to maintain your trust. Some articles and blog posts on our website may contain affiliate links. This means that if you click on these links and make a purchase, we may receive a small commission — at no additional cost to you.

This form of monetization helps support the operations of IslamicScienceHub, enabling us to continue producing high-quality content that serves the educational and spiritual growth of the Muslim Ummah.

Our Commitment to Ethical Promotion

We firmly believe in ethical promotion. We do not recommend any products or services unless we truly believe they offer genuine value to our readers. Our recommendations are carefully curated to align with Islamic values, educational purpose, and scientific relevance. Whether it's books, research tools, educational platforms, or wellness products, we always prioritize integrity over income.

As an Islamic platform, we understand the responsibility of guiding our readers with honesty and sincerity. All Islamic blog affiliate links featured on our site are evaluated through this ethical lens.

How Affiliate Links Help IslamicScienceHub Grow

Running a blog that blends Islamic knowledge with science requires resources — from research efforts to web maintenance. The commissions we earn through affiliate links are reinvested into the platform to improve content quality, maintain site performance, and introduce new tools for our readers.

We choose affiliate programs that reflect our mission: to empower the Muslim Ummah through knowledge, research, and faith-based exploration.

Your Trust Is Our Foundation

We value your trust above all. You are under no obligation to use affiliate links when making purchases. They are provided only for convenience and as a small way to support our cause. Our goal is to remain ad-light and focused on user experience, without compromising on our transparency policy.

Still Have Questions?

If you have any concerns or questions about our use of affiliate links, or would like to understand our selection criteria for promotions, please reach out to us. We are always happy to clarify and ensure our policies meet the expectations of our readers.
